SC Judgement : The Hon'ble Supreme Court of India has held in the case of Society for Unaided Private Schools of Rajasthan v/s U.O.I. & Others Writ Petition (C) No.95 of 2010, that the provisions of the Right of Children to Free and Compulsory Education, Act 2009 (RTE) shall not apply to Unaided Minority Educational Institutions. The National Commission for Minority Educational Institutions, Government of India, New Delhi has declared St. John's High School, managed by the Congregation of Christian Brothers in India, to be a Minority Educational Institution within the meaning of Section 2(g) of the NCMEI Act. St. John's High School, Sector 26, Chandigarh, therefore, being a certified Christian Minority, Unaided Educational Institution, does not have to reserve 25% seats for the E.W.S. (Economically Weaker Section) as mandated in the Right of Children to Free and Compulsory Education Act, 2009.

Being a Christian Minority Educational Institution and in imitation of Jesus, who made a preferential option for the poorest of the poor of society, the School has independently been educating children from the E.D.G (Economically Disadvantaged Group) since 1996 and currently has nearly 270 students from this category in the school. For the year 2022-23, the children from the E.D.G. have already been admitted as the School's policy is to admit these children one year earlier at the preparatory level. Kindly Note: This is an entirely voluntary exercise as the School being a Christian Minority, Private, Unaided School does not come under the purview of the RTE Act in the matter of 25% reservation for seats for E.D.G.

Only ONE application form per child is to be submitted physically in the school office. In the event of it being discovered that more than one application has been submitted for a child, all such forms will stand rejected and the candidate shall be disqualified and not be considered for the Draw of Lots

At the time of submission of forms:

- Kindly bring along an Original Date of Birth Certificate for verification purposes, if you are called to the School. The same will be returned immediately.
- There will be a preliminary examination of the forms. All forms found incomplete/with documents missing/unattested/with incorrect information/ineligible will be rejected.
- The accepted forms will, thereafter, be subjected to further detailed scrutiny after which the final list of eligible candidates for the draw of lots will be drawn up.

The final list of eligible candidates for the draw of lots will be put up on Friday the 14th January 2022 outside the School and on the School website.

Please ensure that the acknowledgement slip that will be given to you is retained and produced whenever you come to the School regarding all future dealings pertaining to admissions.
